

Positively Autism

Making Learning Fun and Meaningful for Children with Autism

Visit PositivelyAutism.com for autism teaching materials and training.
Most things are free!

- Free Newsletter
- Online Autism Training Guides for Parents and Teachers
- Social Skill Activities
- Academic Learning Activities

Travis the Train Goes Trick-or-Treating

For more teaching resources, visit

<http://www.PositivelyAutism.com/>

Instructions for use are on the last page of this document.

It is Halloween, and Travis the Train is dressed as a knight. That is his costume.

His friends are also wearing costumes.

They each have a bag
to hold their candy.

They go to different houses to trick-or-treat and show people their costumes.

When they get to a house, they ring the doorbell or knock on the door.

When a person opens the door, Travis and his friends say, "Trick or Treat!"

Trick or Treat!

The person puts candy in their bags.
Travis and his friends say, "Thank you."

Thank you.

They see children in the neighborhood trick or treating, too. They are having fun.

When they get home, they let their parents look at their candy
before they eat it.

They might have some candy tonight,
and they will save the rest for later.

Travis and his friends had a happy Halloween.

