

Positively Autism

Making Learning Fun and Meaningful for Children with Autism

Visit PositivelyAutism.com for autism teaching materials and training. Most things are free!

- Free Newsletter
- Online Autism Training Guides for Parents and Teachers
- Social Skill Activities
- Academic Learning Activities

How to Use

- When you get to a “blank” in the story, fill in (by either writing, showing a picture, and/or just telling your child) what your family is doing.
- You can either print the pages out, or show them to the student on a computer, phone, or tablet. My students seem to enjoy viewing it on a computer, phone, or tablet, but do whatever works best for your students/children.
- This activity is part of a series of activities about summer. You can find the rest of the summer activities here: <http://positivelyautism.weebly.com/freebies-academics-theme-units---seasons-summer.html>

What to Expect on Summer Break

Soon, my school will have summer break.

During summer break, my school will be closed. Most kids do not go to school during the summer.

I will go back to school after summer break is over.

Summer break usually lasts for a few months.
For most kids, summer break will be during June, July, and some or all of August.

During summer break,
I might do different things.

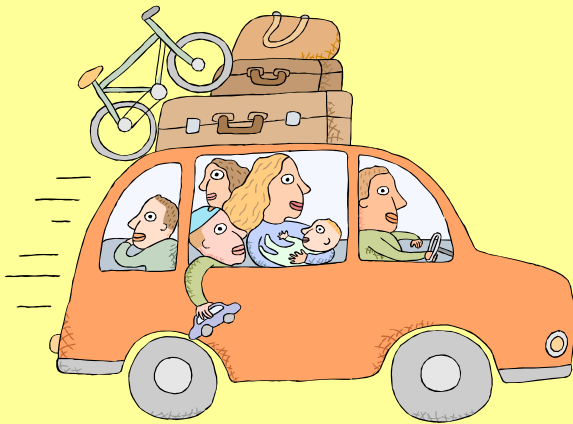

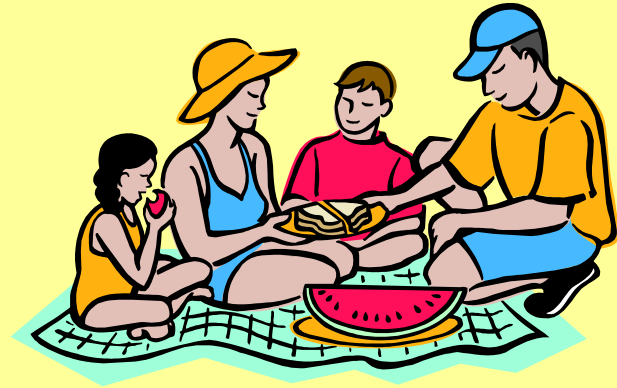

I might stay at home with my family.

I might visit some relatives.

My family might go on a vacation to a different place.

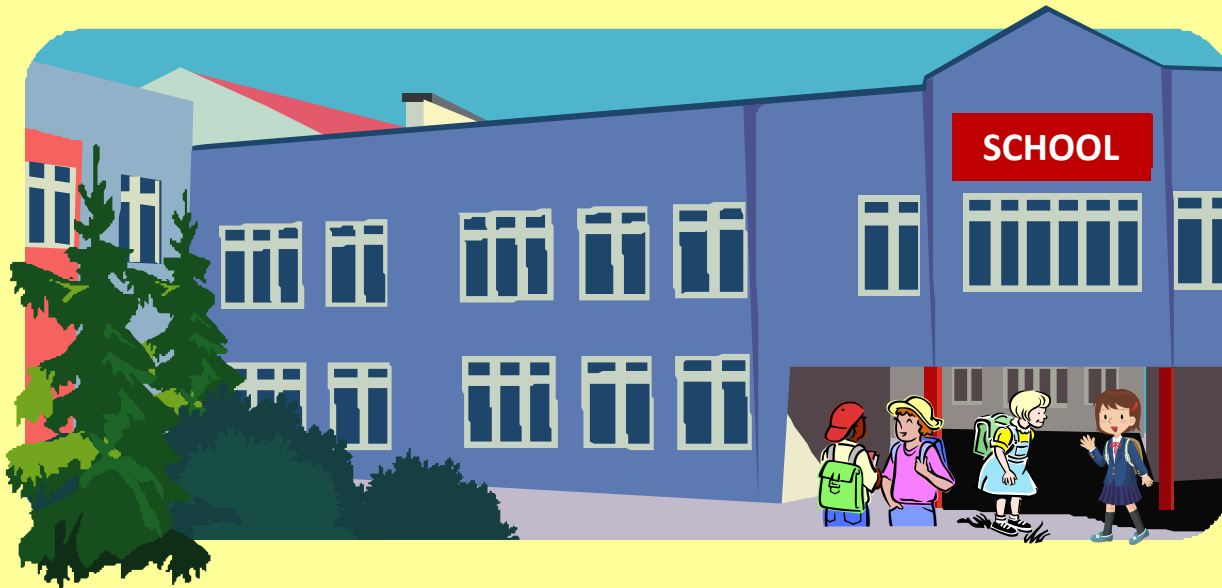

On summer break, my family will

---

---

After summer break is over,
I will go back to school.

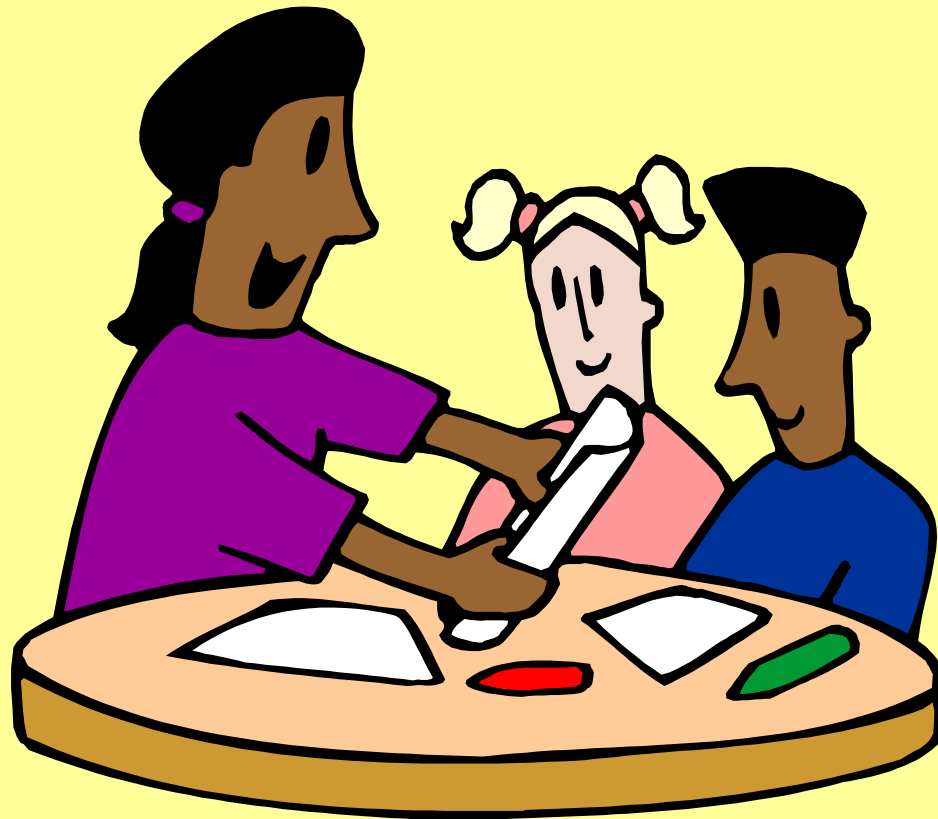

I will go back to school on

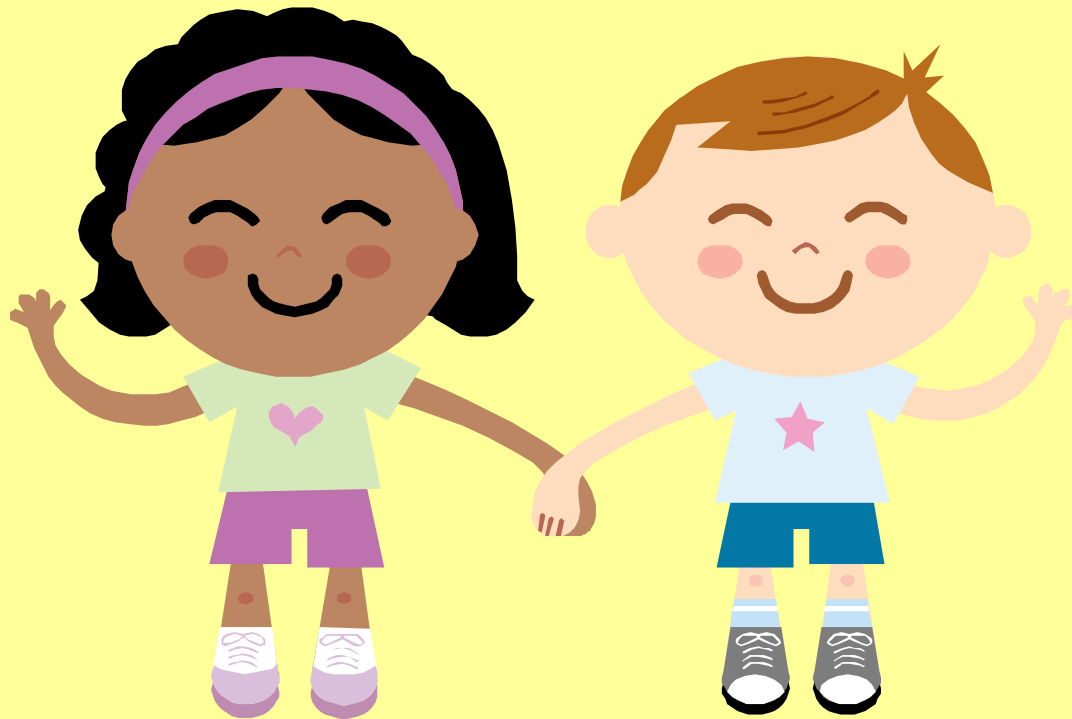

---

---

When I go back to school, I might have a new teacher or some new kids in my class.

My teacher and family will all work together to make the new school year
a great one!

I am learning about summer break.

