Having a Birthday Party

Soon, I will have a birthday party.

Kids may come to my home for the party.

At the party, there are lots of things we might do.

We might wear party hats.

We might play games.

We might eat cake and ice cream.

The people might sing a "Happy Birthday" song.

After they sing, I can blow out the candles on the cake.

People might give me presents.

I will try to say, "Thank You" when I get a present.

Some of the presents might be toys.

The kids might want to play with the toys.
It is okay to share because I can play with them by myself when the kids leave.

When the kids leave, I will try to tell them
"Good-bye" and "Thank you for coming."

Thank you for coming. Bye!

I am learning about having a birthday party!
