Opening Presents at a Party

Soon, I will have a birthday party.

At my party, other kids may bring me presents.

I get to open each present.

Each time I open a present, I will try to say "Thank you!"

This will make my friends feel happy.

Some of the presents might be fun toys.

I might want to play with the toys now,
but I will need to wait until all of the presents are open.

The other kids want to see me open all of the presents. I will be able to play with my new toys just a little bit later.

When I open presents, I will try to remember these things:

1. Say, "thank you" to the person who gave the present.
2. After it is open, I will put the present down, and open another present.
3. I will be able to play with my presents after they are all open.

I am learning about opening presents at a birthday party!
